

Meet Five,
our intergalactic
Cloud Native Hero

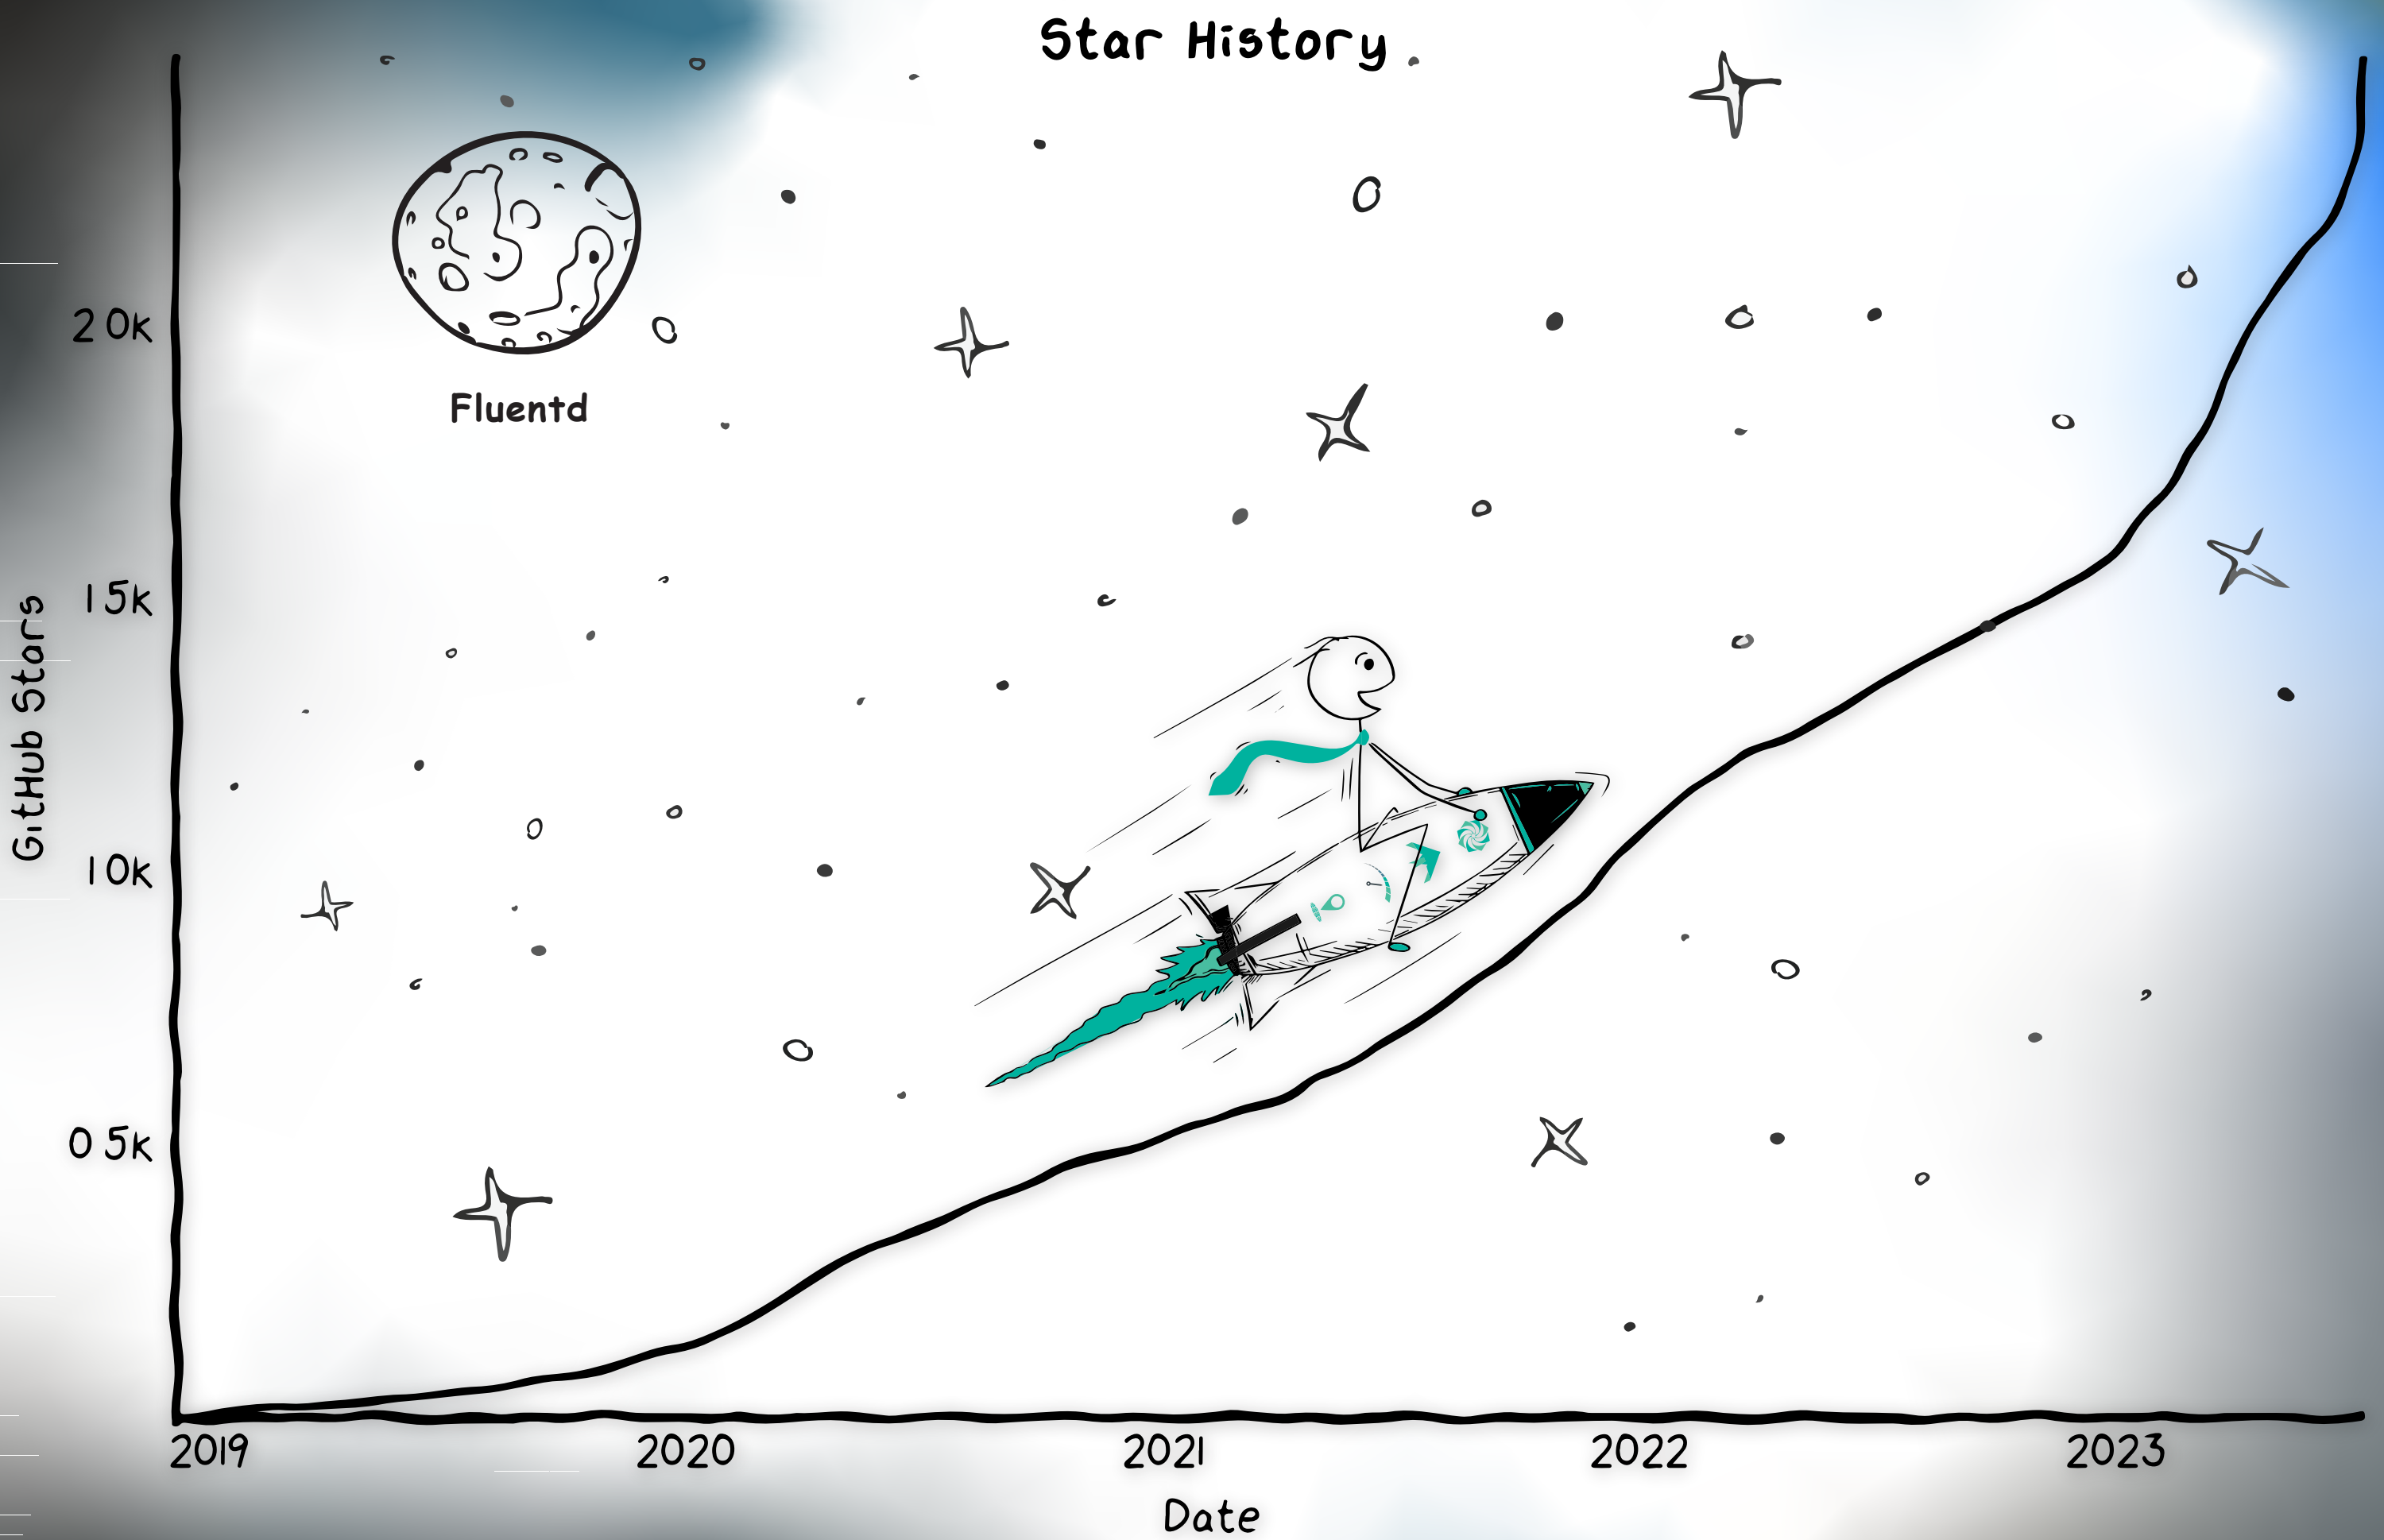

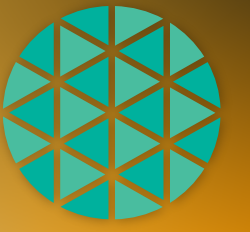

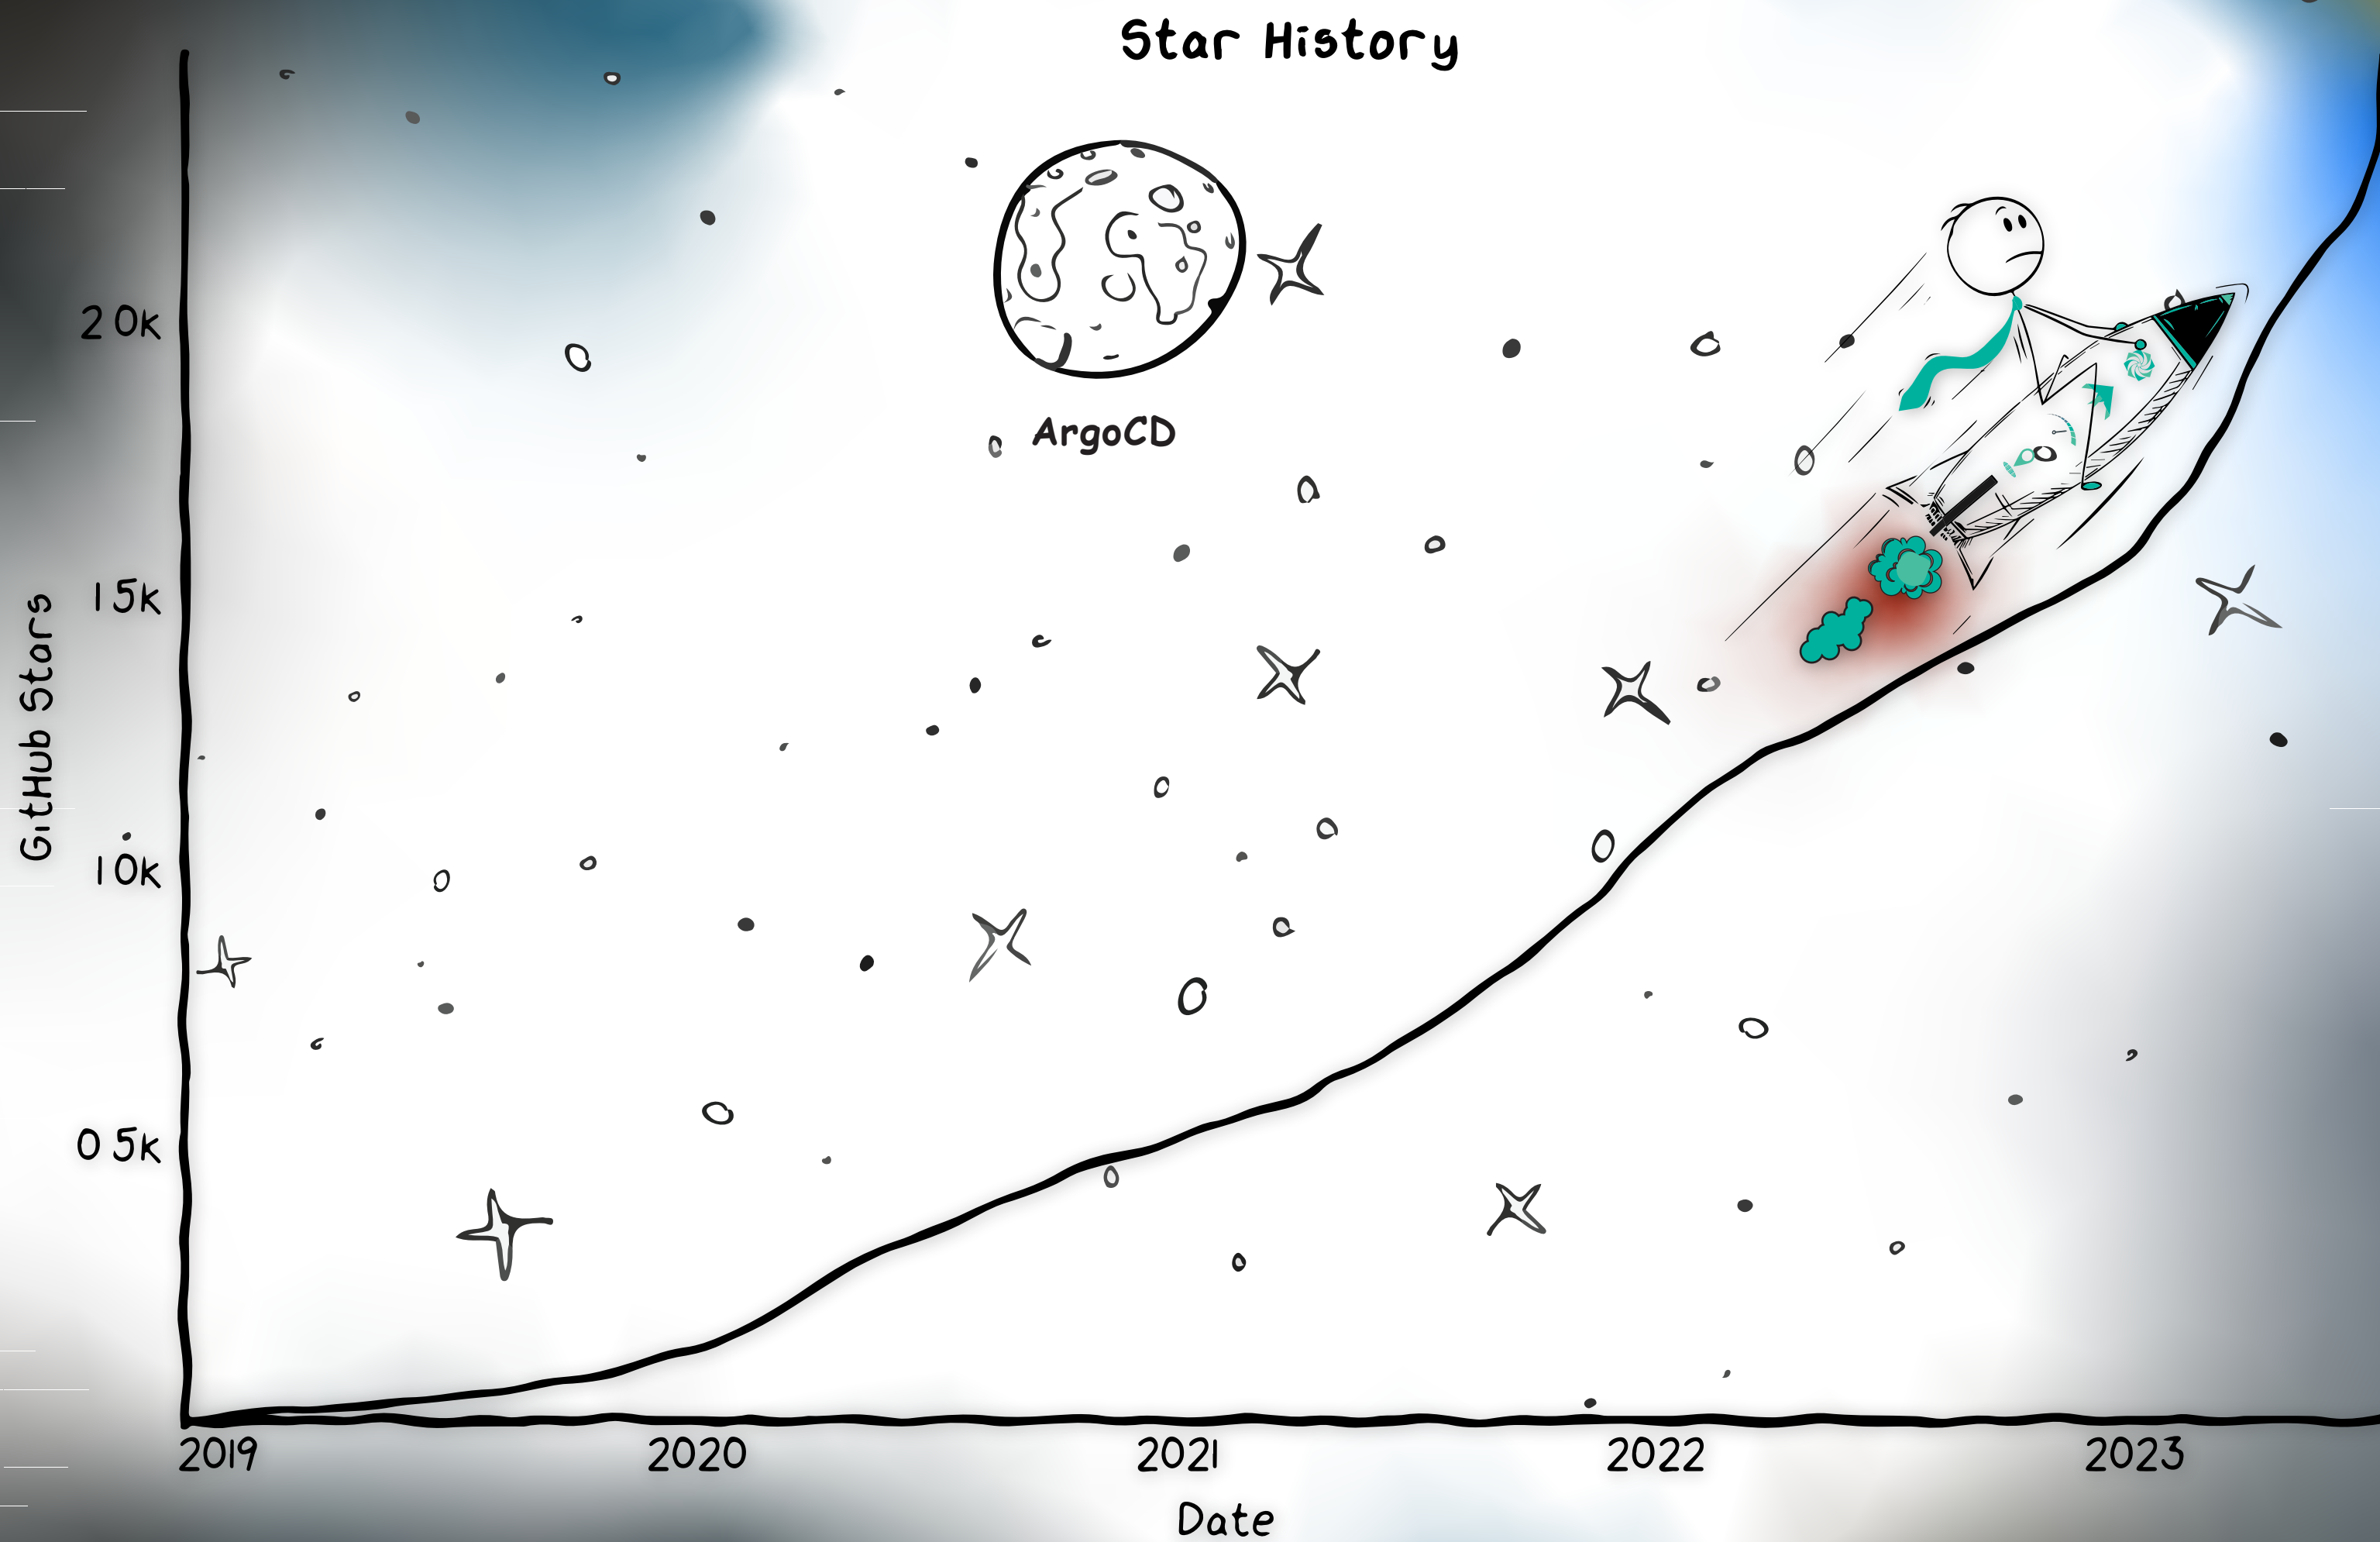

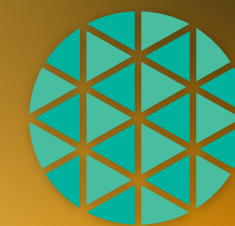

Join Five as he sets off in his trusty rocketship following the trail of stars to planet Meshery.

Our hero's spirits are high as he travels through vast expanse of Cloud Native Universe.

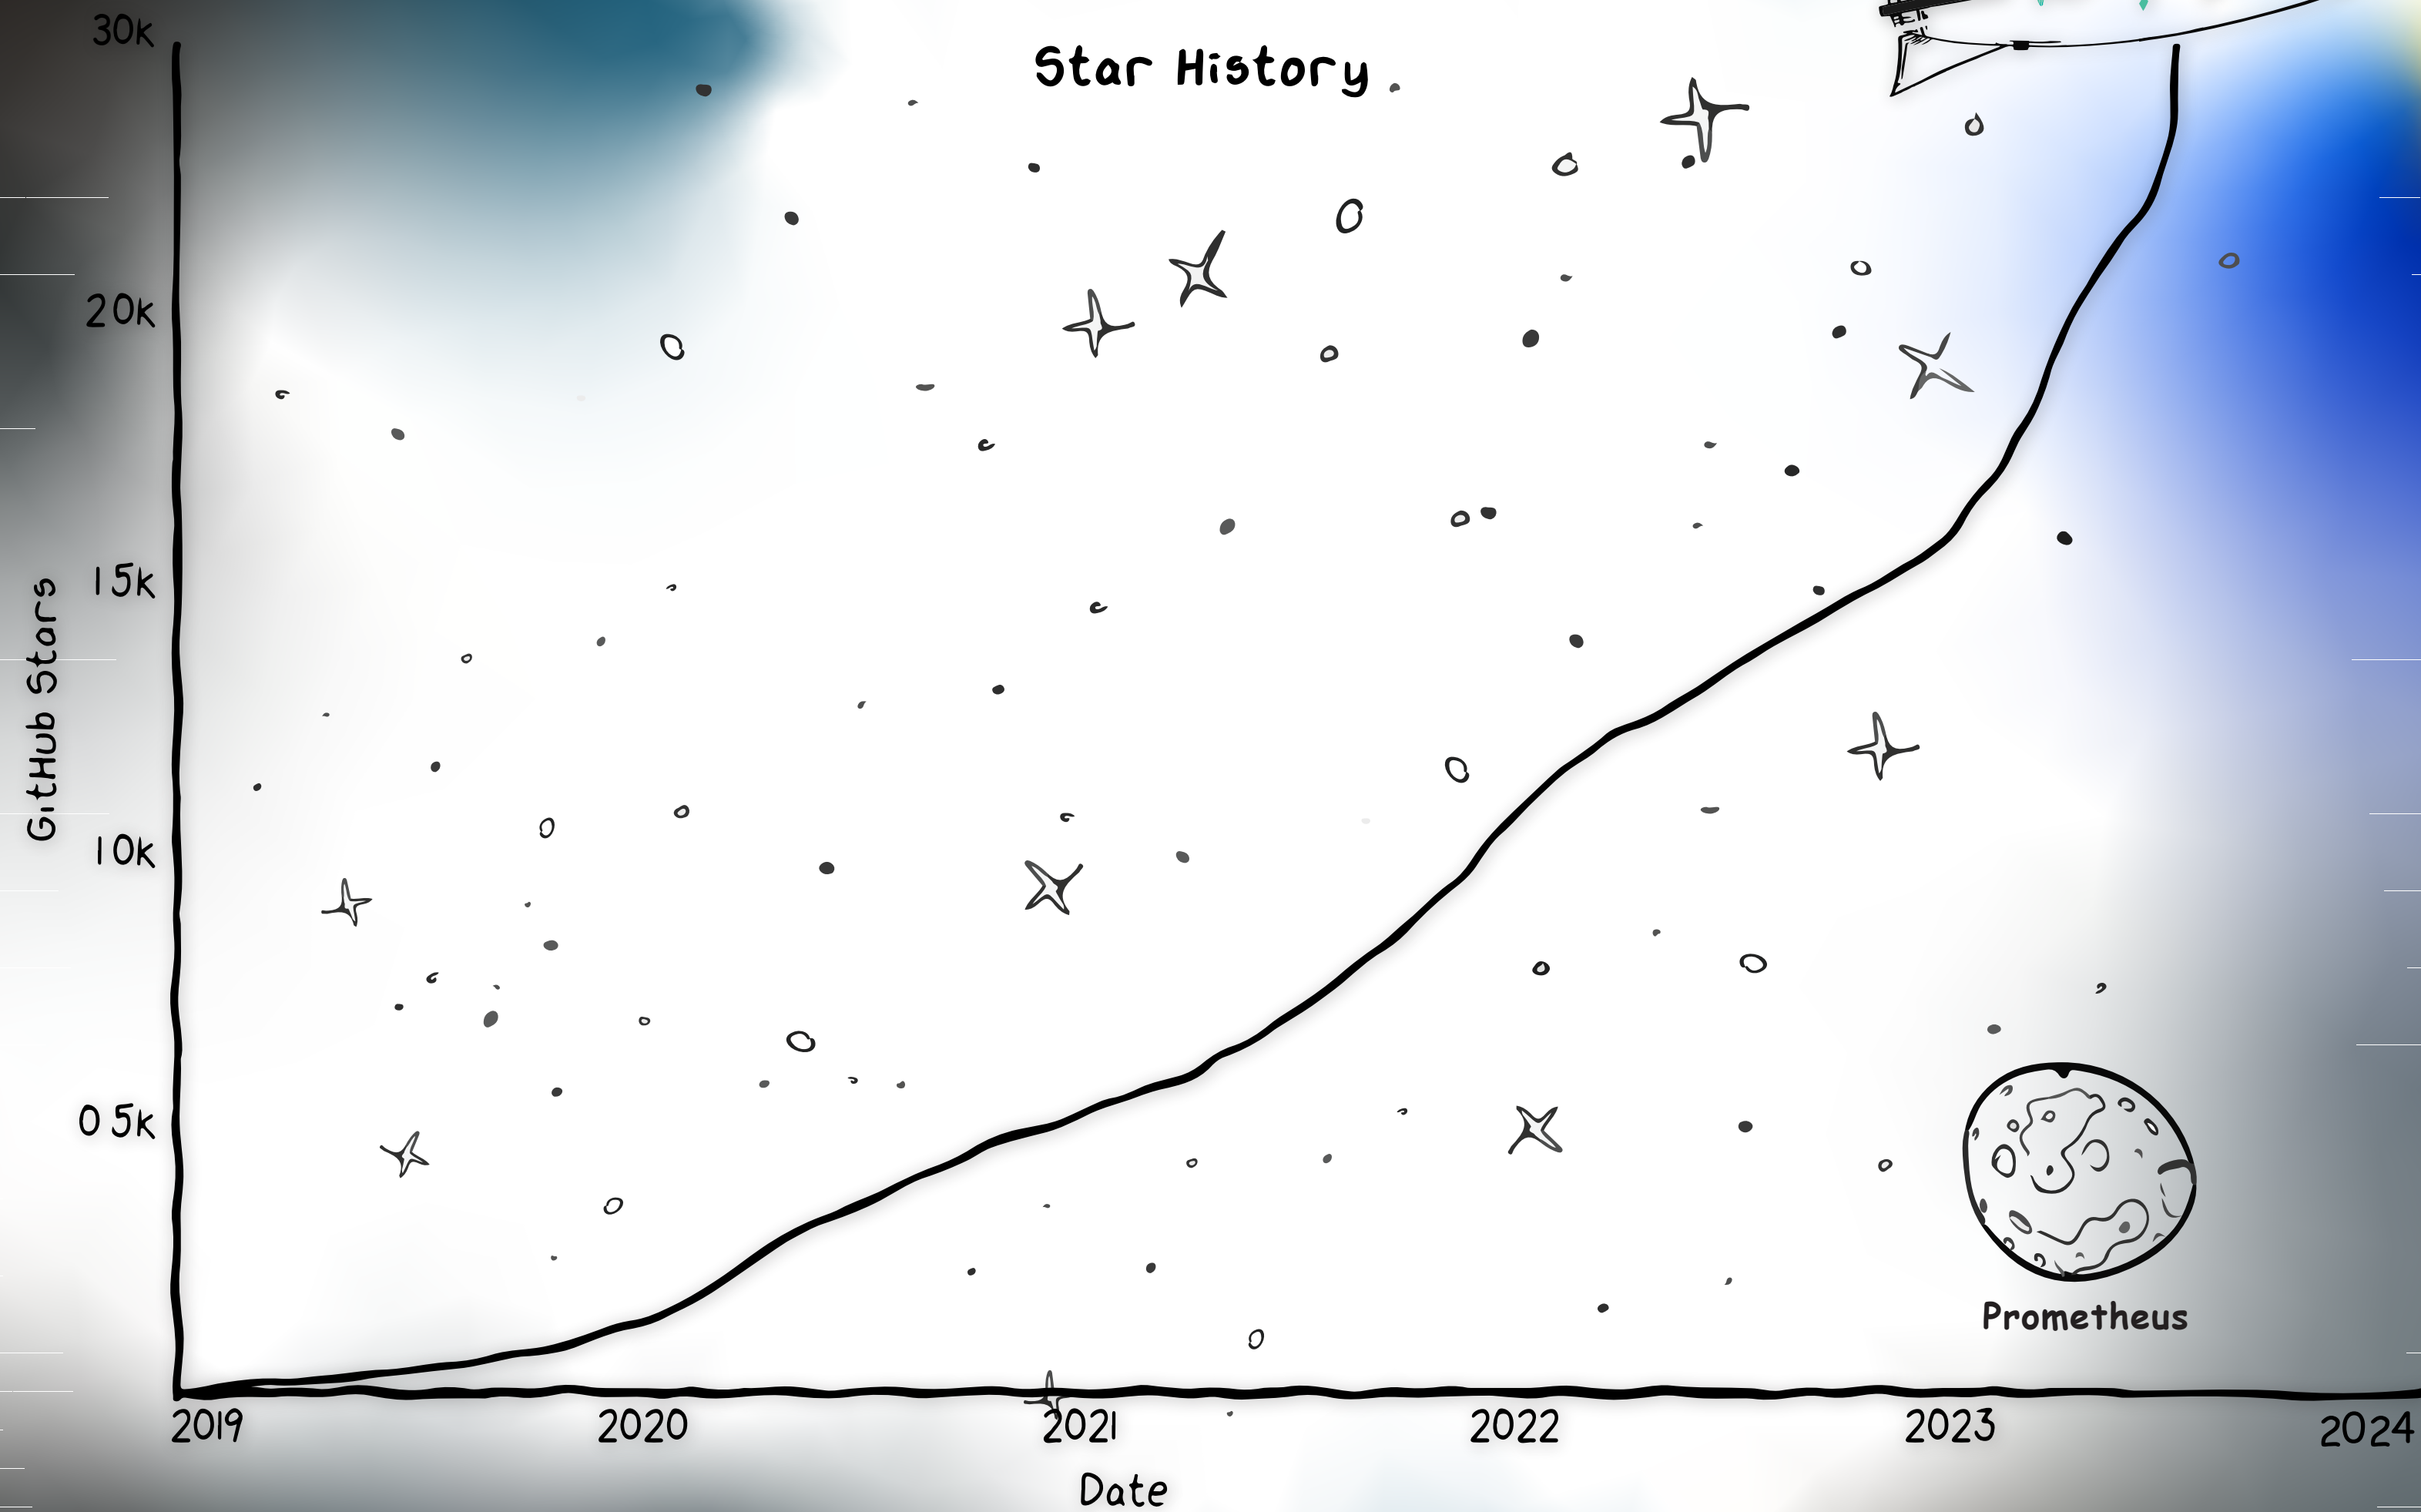

Facing a near vertical slope, the rocketship burns through its fuel at an accelerated rate.

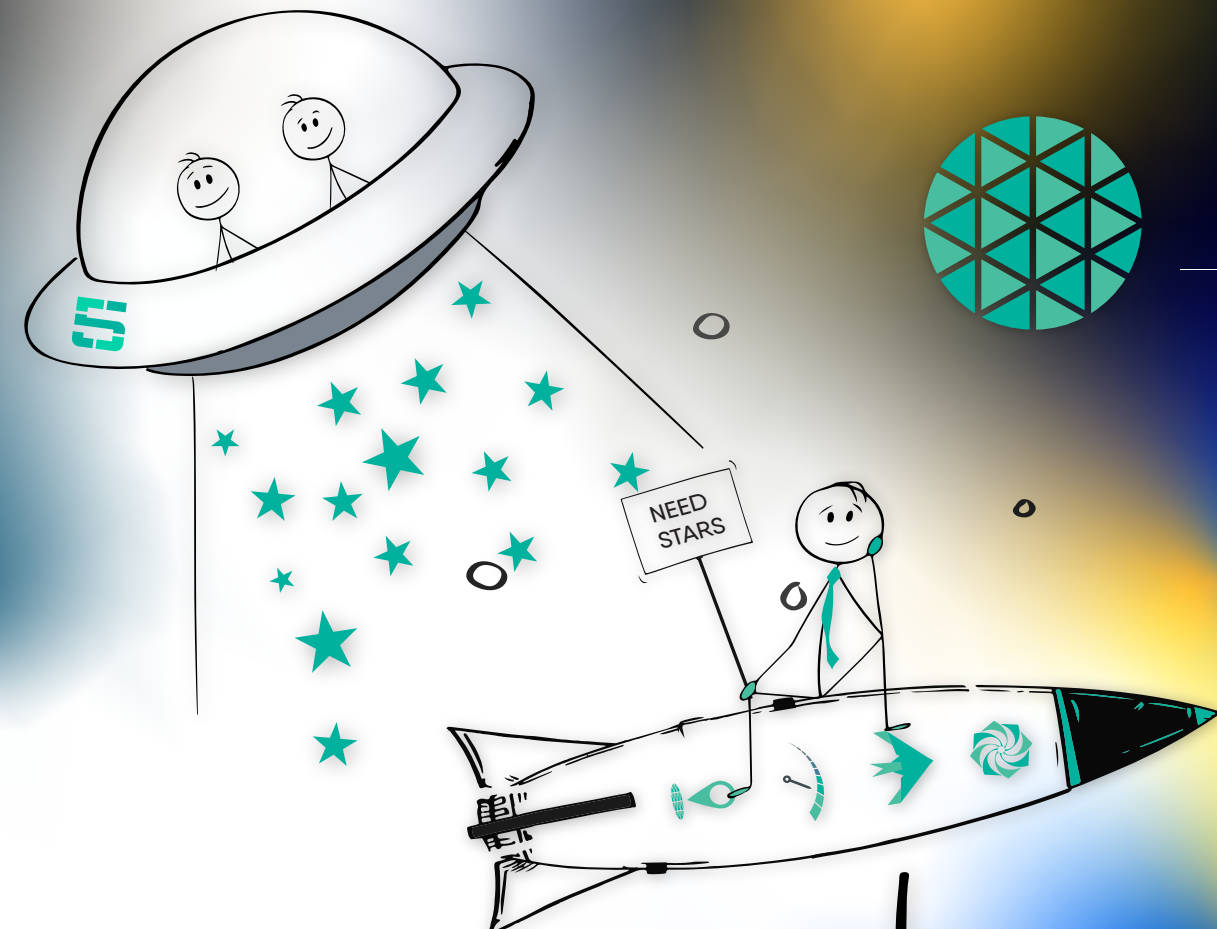

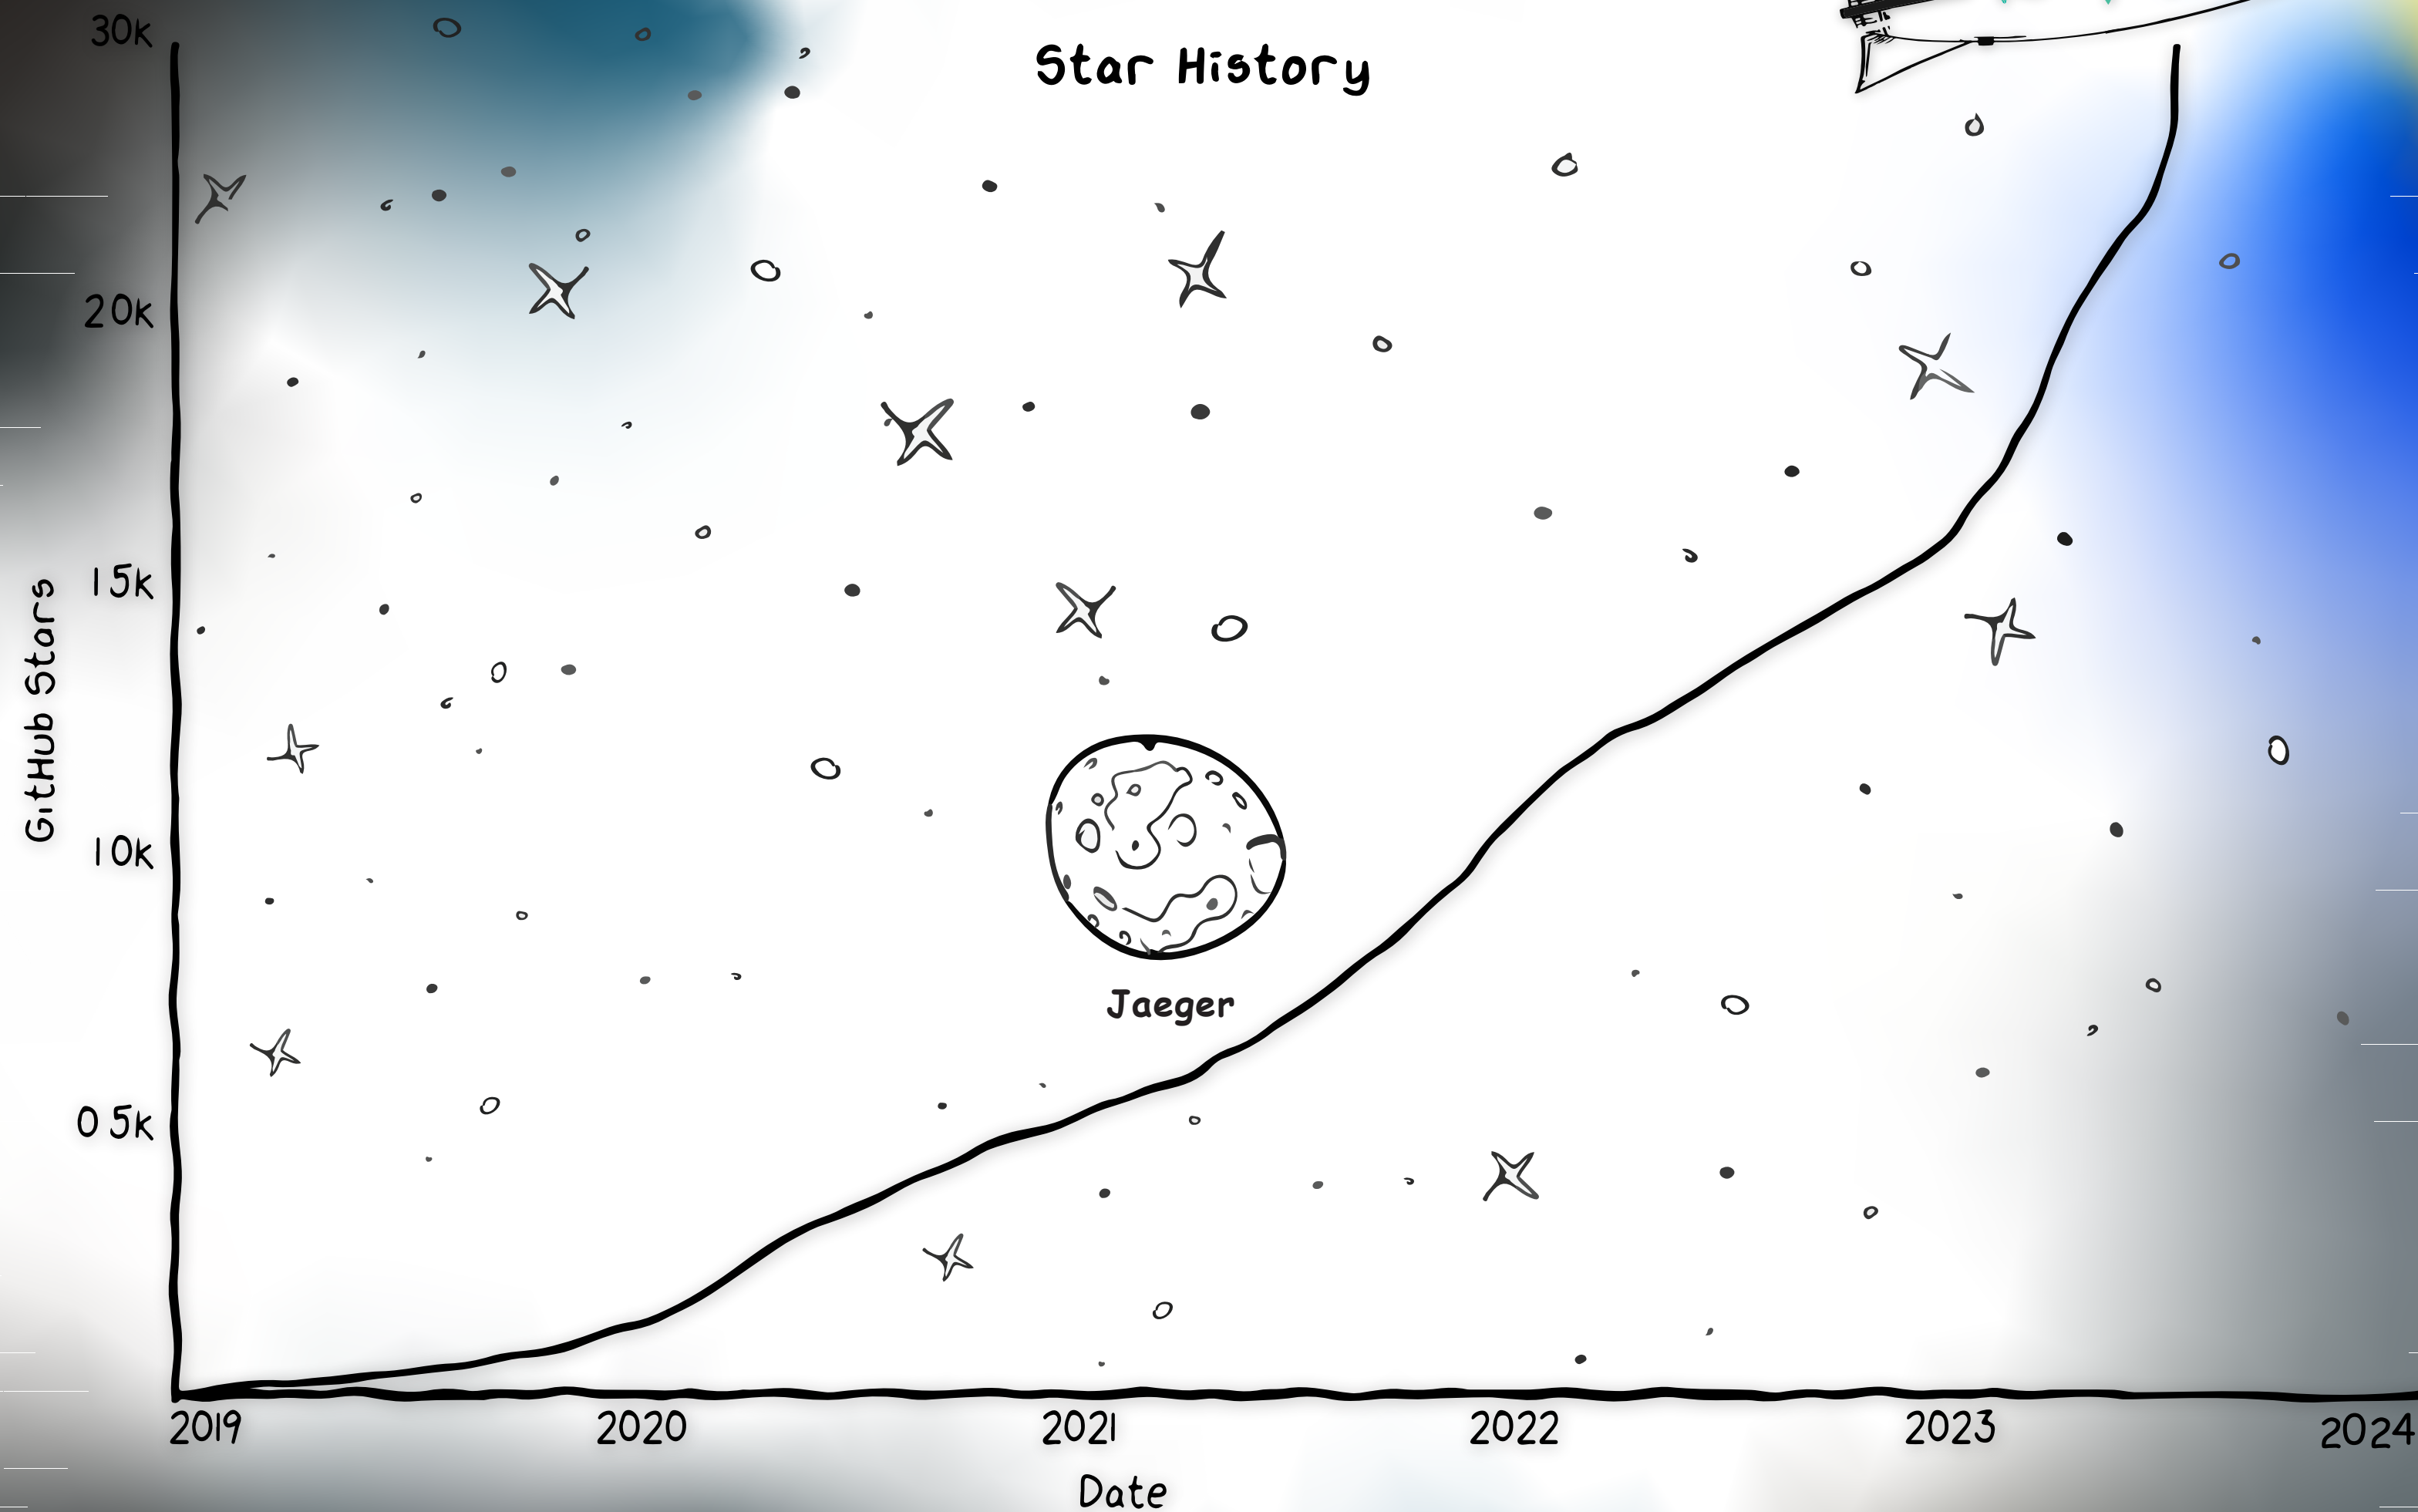

Five finds himself stranded midpoint of his Cloud Native Journey in need of stars to refuel his rocketship.

Bearing stars, its the Open Source community to the rescue!

Star History

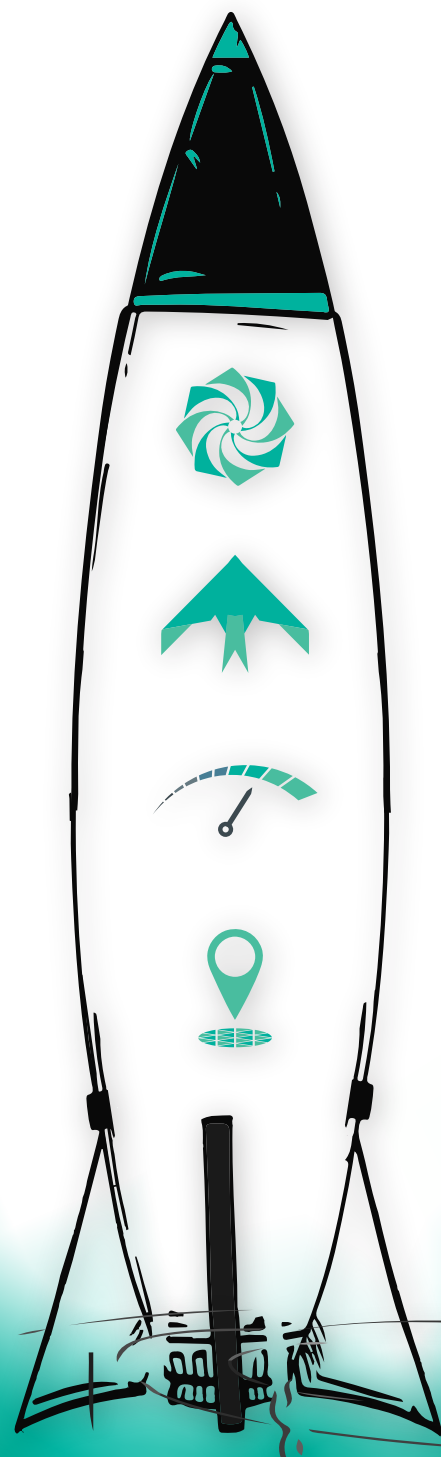

While community members are providing fuel, it's not enough. Our hero, Five, needs more stars to continue his cloud native journey.

Help Five by dropping your star on the Meshery repository!
